
TOWN&COUNTRY

Inside The Winter Show's Young Collectors' Night

A young crowd of philanthropic aesthetes flocked to celebrate the annual art and design event.

On April 7, the Winter Show hosted its Young Collectors Night—a benefit for East Side House Settlement—at 660 Madison Avenue in Manhattan. The evening was co-chaired by Jeffrey Caldwell, Sam Dangremond, Michael Diaz-Griffith, Yuan Fang, Robbie Gordy, Lydia Johnson, Lucinda May, Madeline O'Malley, and Mieke Ten Have, and welcomed more than 400 guests, including Christian Siriano, Eboni K. Williams, Paul Arnhold, and Giancarlo Valle, among others—to the former Barneys New York flagship for cocktails, music from DJ Timo Weiland, and art, including live sketches from artist Kylee Snow.

TOWN&COUNTRY

Ebony K. Williams

Christian Siriano

Anastasia Nikita, Bettina Bennett, and Keita Turner

Paul Arnhold

Billy Cotton and
Giancarlo Valle